

The Hidden Gem, Clinical Skincare Thousand Oaks, Supports Knights of Columbus Fundraiser

The Hidden Gem, Clinical Skincare in Thousand Oaks once again has agreed to support the Knights of Columbus at their annual fundraiser.

This year the theme of the annual event will be a St Patrick's Day Dinner Dance at St Jude's Roman Catholic Church in Westlake Village, on March 17, 2012. Irish food and music plus dancing and a fun filled evening will be shared by all who attend.

Asked why The Hidden Gem Skin Care is dedicated to the Knights of Columbus activities, owner esthetician, Kathryn Bruno said "The Knights of Columbus is a terrific Catholic men's group dedicated to charitable activities in the community and the Catholic faith.

My husband has been a member for many years and I am thrilled to participate in these annual fundraisers by donating products and services from my clinical skincare spa in Thousand Oaks.

There will be a silent auction during the event and The Hidden Gem basket has always been a big success, attracting a lot of bids from the ladies and their husbands, or date, who would like to treat them to a world class skin care treatment and the finest in skincare products.

"I am honored that The Hidden Gem has been asked to once again be a participant in this worthwhile cause", commented Kathryn Bruno, "and look forward to a big turnout and fun filled evening for everyone who attends."

For more information about The Hidden Gem Clinical Skincare in Thousand Oaks serving the Conejo Valley visit <http://TheHiddenGem.info>